

PICO RIVERA REMINDS YOU TO RECYCLE

Beverage container recycling is not only good for the environment; it's good for your pocket too! Every beverage container has a CRV label, which stands for California Refund Value. This is a value that is added at the time of purchase and if the beverage container is recycled you are entitled to a refund of that value. Depending on the material of the bottle (type of plastic or glass) and size of the bottle in ounces the CRV for each bottle can range from 5¢ to 10¢. You can redeem this value by taking your bottles and cans to any of the local recycling centers listed below:
